Community Foundation of Central Illinois Appoints Five New Members to Board of Directors

May 12, 2021—The Community Foundation of Central Illinois (CFCI) announces the appointment of Ron Givens, Lea Anne Miller, Shauna Musselman, Andrew Ryon, and Tammy Waterworth to its Board of Directors.

“We’re honored to welcome Ron, Lea Anne, Shauna, Andrew, and Tammy to the CFCI Board. I know with their respective skill sets, they will help drive CFCI forward in positive ways while supporting the mission of connecting people who care with causes that matter,” says Mark Roberts, President and CEO of the Community Foundation of Central Illinois.

Ron Givens is a lifelong Peorian and the owner of two businesses in the community, JM Industrial Supply and GIVSCO Construction Company. He served on the Peoria Police Department for 25 years and retired in 2008 as a detective. Ron is also a veteran of the United States Marine Corp and retired as a Gunnery Sergeant in 1998. He graduated from Illinois Central College with a degree in education and received his certification of business and finance from both Bradley University and the University of Illinois at Springfield. Ron has been involved in the community for over 50 years serving on many boards and committees, including Habitat for Humanity, Illinois Central College PTAC, Peoria Chamber of Commerce, Illinois Central College Educational Foundation, and many more. He was inducted into the African American Hall of Fame in Peoria for his accomplishments in racing. Ron currently resides in Peoria with his wife, Carrie Givens.

Lea Anne Miller currently serves as an Operations Manager at State Farm and holds responsibility for Life policy service, including the annuities and commercial group life operations. She has worked for State Farm since 1994 and her experience spans several other departments within the company, including Internal Auditing, Mutual Funds, and the Property & Casualty side of the business. She received her Executive MBA degree from the University of Illinois in 2011 and her bachelor’s degree in Accounting from the University of Illinois Springfield. She is a registered Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and holds an array of insurance designations. She also has both her Series 6 and Series 26 securities licenses. Lea Anne has been involved with the Community Foundation of Central Illinois for over six years and is wrapping up her final year as Chair of the Women’s Fund Advisory Board. She has also actively participated and served on key Women’s Fund committees such as Grants, Development, and the Leader Luncheon. Lea Anne is a native to central Illinois and currently resides in Peoria. She has a passion for helping local organizations that make this community a better place for all people to live, and firmly believes education, resources, and opportunity can help prevent or break the detrimental cycles people often find themselves in.

Shauna Musselman has served as Assistant County Administrator for Peoria County since 2016. She has worked in Peoria County Government since 2001, holding the positions of Budget Analyst, Risk Management Coordinator, HR Specialist and Assistant Director of Human Resources. She has been active in the community for a number of years, previously volunteering with the Susan G. Komen Peoria Affiliate, serving as a member of the Peoria Heights Planning Commission and as chairperson of the Peoria Heights Neighborhood Impact Partnership which worked with the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission to survey Heights residents and establish an intergovernmental committee to develop a comprehensive plan for the Village. Shauna also served three terms as Village Clerk in Peoria Heights from 2005-2016. In her spare time, she enjoys spending time with her family, reading, and hiking.

Andrew Ryon has over 15 years of public accounting experience since graduating from the University of Iowa. He began his career at Gordon, Stockman & Waugh, P.C. in 2005 and was named partner in 2013. Andrew has served as the client service coordinator on a large number of engagements and has devoted a significant amount of time serving clients in the nonprofit, governmental and construction industries. He has served on several nonprofit boards and currently serves on the Audit and Finance Committee of the Community Foundation of Central Illinois and is the Treasurer of the Brooke E. Crawmer-Joseph Foundation. Andrew is a Certified Public Accountant in the State of Illinois and a member of the Illinois CPA Society.

Tammy Waterworth is a Senior Vice President at PNC and currently serves as Relationship Strategist on the Personal Wealth team. Tammy has also previously held positions at PNC in mortgage and commercial banking and has over 35 years experience in the industry working at PNC and predecessor organizations. She stays active in the community while being a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Metamora and has served on the boards for Snyder Village in Metamora, Illinois Central College Educational Foundation, and Family House. She currently resides in Metamora with her husband Mike and two children.
